This championship is a specific for Arabians, about that, every rider is allowed to start in the Championship competitions as many horses in every competition as the rider is able to handle. To help the competitor it is allowed that a helper warm up the horse.

Startingpossibilities: E Einsteiger/Beginners +A Amateur, A + O Masters,this means the same horse can compete with a different rider in either E+A and an other rider in A+O. The riders competing in Championships can also compete with a different horse in E+A. This ones are not allowed to participate in Championships

In a Championship competition rider cannot be changed in Championships during the whole event. That rider entered the arena first cannot be changed during the whole event. No separate time for waiting for preparing the horses. The pleasure competitions will be split with 12 or more horses. Half of the placed horses compete in a final again for the title. Riders with two horses in the final must declare their choice with which horse he will compete now.

Dessagetest up to L/M, is possible with announcement, the rider has to bring his own speaker and let the showoffice know.

Austrian Western & Classic All Around Champion, all OPEN/O Competitions count plus Type & Conformation.

The riders placed in the medailes have to participate correctly dressed with the horse under saddle at the final pricegiving ceremony. Those they are not present with the winning horse, they will loose their awards and the next placed horse will get the place
